Once approved, the HODC will inform the team that the manager will be playing against that this has occurred.

Out of Play: When the ball is overthrown beyond the boundary fence lines, it is out of play and a "dead ball." Runners are awarded the next base from their "current" position, except for an infield hit by the batter who can only take first base. A runner's "current" position is established at the time the ball is thrown (released by the thrower).

 - a. Example No. 1: If a runner has not yet reached 1st base at the time the ball is thrown, she is awarded 1st base, and may not advance further.
 - b. Example No. 2: If a runner has reached first base at the time the ball is thrown, then she is awarded 2nd base (unless an infield hit where batter must remain at 1st base).

West Valley Girls Softball

- c. Example No. 3: If a runner has reached 2nd base but has not yet reached 3rd base, then she is awarded 3rd base, and may not advance further.
- d. Example No. 4: If a runner has reached 3rd base but has not yet reached home, then she is awarded home plate.

Foul Territory (1st base, 3rd base): If the ball goes into foul territory, but remains within the boundary fence lines, then the ball is live and the runner may advance a MAXIMUM of one additional base from the runner's "current" position, at her own risk, meaning she may be thrown out, with the exception of an infield hit by the batter who can only take first base. A runner's "current" position is established at the time the ball is thrown (released by the thrower).

- e. Example No. 1: If a runner has not yet reached 1st base at the time the ball is thrown, she may advance to 2nd base at her own risk (unless an infield hit where batter must remain at 1st base).

 - g. Example No. 3: If a runner has reached 2nd base but has not yet reached 3rd base at the time the ball is thrown, then she may advance home at her own risk.
19. Once the ball is in the pitcher's glove within the pitcher's circle, the runner can only continue to the base they are approaching and cannot take an extra base. If the runner attempts to take an extra base a warning will be issued, and repeated offenses by the team will result in an "out" instead of a warning.
20. Pitcher cannot run to any base for a force out. For example – if the ball is hit to the pitcher, they should throw to first and not run with the ball to first base for the out. Pitcher may not run the ball home for the force-out. She must throw the ball to the catcher.
